

TITLE :	Indigenous Initiatives Lead
POSITION STATUS:	Full-time (1.0 FTE)
REPORTS TO:	Programs and Partnerships Manager
SALARY:	$52,000 – $59,000 (1.0 FTE)
POSTING DATE:	17 August 2020
CLOSING DATE:	17 September 2020
TARGET START DATE:	05 October 2020

ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW

The Edmonton Heritage Council (EHC) is a not for profit organization that connects people to the stories of our city through our leadership, support, and programs. We do this by helping Edmontonians research, preserve, interpret, and advocate for our heritage.

POSITION SUMMARY

The EHC is currently recruiting for a brand-new role: Indigenous Initiatives Lead. The Indigenous Initiatives Lead will support EHC in its goal of supporting Indigenous peoples in revitalizing and participating in cultural practice that connects to their ancestors, the land, and living traditions. They will lead EHC’s activities to support and build relationships with Indigenous leaders in cultural work, developing partnerships within the heritage sector, and in developing and delivering Indigenous heritage projects.

The Indigenous Initiatives Lead understands the dynamic and layered histories and living traditions of First Nations, Métis, and Inuit communities living and working in the Edmonton area. They are experienced with program development, implementation, and evaluation. They understand and have successfully navigated multi-stakeholder partnerships. They are naturally at ease in new situations and understand the challenges and opportunities that exist when bringing people together. They will explore and develop new and existing relationships to enhance and increase representation of Indigenous voices in Edmonton’s heritage sector.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Community Outreach:

- Cultivate and maintain positive and respectful relationships to advance cultural activities, community-based research, and the sharing of stories amongst Indigenous peoples in the Edmonton Metropolitan Region (EMR);
- Raise awareness about the work of the Edmonton Heritage Council through in-person and virtual meetings, networking, and social media;
- Connect with Indigenous individuals as well as Indigenous-led cultural, health, and knowledge-sharing organizations across the EMR to learn about their needs regarding program and project development and delivery;
- Act as a representative for the Edmonton Heritage Council at related community events and meetings; and

- Identify and create partnerships with Indigenous organizations across the not-for-profit, business, and academic sectors to assist them in accessing and exhibiting heritage materials to increase learning opportunities for all Edmontonians.

Indigenous Program and Project Development:

- Identify and advance opportunities for program and project development;
- Evaluate and respond to feedback in project and program design to ensure it continues to meet community cultural heritage needs;
- Assist in brokering partnerships with external agencies, organizations, and individuals interested in working collaboratively with EHC; and
- Lead and where appropriate contract external people to provide training in cultural teachings, intercultural competency through workshops and in-services.

Inter-Program Coordination:

- Understand and promote the Heritage Community Investment Program (HCIP)
- Understand and promote the Edmonton City as Museum Project (ECAMP) program and collaborative opportunities;
- Assist Indigenous community organizations and individuals in pursuing funding and other resources to conduct heritage work by providing coaching and feedback; and
- Liaise with other program staff (HCIP and ECAMP) to find opportunities to collaborate, share, refer, and where appropriate promote work already underway.

Administration:

- Utilize and update a database to track outreach activities and their impact on organizational goals;
- Complete all required reports and administrative processes; and
- Provide support and counsel to EHC Management.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Demonstrated experience working with Indigenous communities in program delivery, community development, and/or outreach
- Demonstrated experience working with Indigenous ways of knowing and protocols regarding knowledge sharing
- Experience developing cultural and heritage-based programs that support community-driven heritage work
- Knowledge and understanding of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada, its history, Calls to Action, and work underway in response
- Coursework in a relevant field of study, or equivalent combination of education and experience preferred
- Strong communication skills, both written and oral
- Project Management experience with meticulous attention to detail, process, and documentation
- Excellent time management skills
- Ability to learn and adhere to established processes, as well as develop new processes as required
- Familiarity with Microsoft Office Applications (Windows and Mac OS)
- Working experience with database systems preferred (i.e. CRM systems)
- Attention to detail for administrative tasks

Work Environment

The position's workspace is located within the EHC offices. At present, all EHC staff are operating on a blended work-from-home and office schedule. There is regular contact with stakeholders and the public at the EHC office and around Edmonton. This position will involve occasional evening and weekend work.

Physical Requirements

There are minimal physical requirements such as infrequent setting up of table and chairs for meetings, moving boxes of meeting-related items in and out of vehicles, and traveling off-site to other locations.
